

Dear Future 5th Graders,

Over the summer you need to keep exercising your brains! Here is some work you need to do to accomplish this. You are to read the book, "The Tale of Despereaux" by Kate DiCamillo. There is also a book report form, for this book that must be completed and handed in on the 1st day of school. This will be your first ELA grade so make it complete and neat. You may print your work, no computers! You MUST know all your multiplication facts by 5th grade as well! You will be tested the 1st week of school.

Also here is a list of the supplies you will need on the first day of school.

- 7 copybooks, no spiral bound
- 2 packs of 3x5 index cards with lines on one side
- 12 inch ruler
- 2 red pens
- 1 black pen
- Pencil case
- 3 packs of loose leaf for your binder
 - Binder dividers (7 sections) have the labeled
Sections are; Religion, Reading, English, Spelling, Math, Social Studies, Science
- Packs of post-its
- Colored pencils
- Markers
- Crayons (16 pack)
- 3 - 2 pocket folders
- Small dictionary

You will be required to purchase "The Catholic Youth Bible". The cost is $28.00. You will use these from 5th through 8th grade.

Enjoy your summer and be safe!

Mrs. Christine Vogt
